DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, Proprietor.

From the New York Tribune, 9th.

A PRIVATE DINNER WITH CHARLES DICKENS.

Gen Prosper M. Wetmore has recently published, in a weekly journal, an interesting account of the public dinner given to Mr. Dickens on his first arrival in New York twenty-five years ago; and he dwells with feeling and genuine pathos upon the departure from among us of the committee of noble and distinguished gentlemen who formed the committee of reception on the occasion of that memorable banquet. Each member was distinguished by a band of red ribbon, and consisted of the following gentlemen, all of whom are dead except the writer of the tribute to their character, standing, and many virtues. They were: Philip Hone, Robt. H. Morris, Charles Augustus Davis, David C. Colden, William Kent, Thomas J. Oakley, William H. Maxwell, Valentine Mott, John W. Francis, Jno. C. Cheesman and Prosper M. Wetmore.—Mr. Wetmore, in briefly adverting to the banquet given to Mr. Dickens at the City Hotel, omits any mention of the proceedings. They were remarkable in many respects, not less on account of the character of the participants than of the incidents of the occasion. Washington Irving presided, and in a speech in which the guest of the evening was welcomed to the country, and to the homes and hearts of our people, he "broke down," as the phrase is, through the inconsiderate interruption of a well meaning friend.

Mr. Irving, who had been overpersuaded to "speak on his feet"—a thing, he said, which he could never successfully accomplish—was going on swimmingly, and in his most felicitous language, when Mr. Charles Augustus Davis, an intimate friend, and with the "best intentions in the world," looking him the while admiringly in the face: "Good! Irving! good! excellent! You are succeeding admirably!" That interruption," said Washington Irving to me the next day, "broke me down completely. It snapped the thread of my discourse, which was unwinding to my satisfaction, and scattered the thoughts and images which were in my mind, and at my tongue's end, into utter rout." I mention this little fact as a warning to well meaning but inconsiderate "friends," similarly situated and similarly tempted. My friend Mr. Wetmore speaks of the dinner given to Mr. Dickens by the "Novelties Club" of New York—a society composed of editors, artists, actors, and employees of the public press of the metropolis—"in Park-row."—The dinner in question was given at the Astor House, and was in Stetson's unexampled and inimitable "manner." It was presided over by the late Judge William Kent, assisted by the late David Graham.—Mr. Dickens was completely at home in the society of this club, and was often afterward heard to remark that the dinner was one of the most pleasant and cordial entertainments offered him in America. I come now to speak of a dinner to Mr. Dickens, of which I had the great pleasure to be the host, and of which I may speak, I think, without egotism and without any infraction of the rules of social intercourse. It was literally "a feast of reason and a flow of soul." Of the guests who were present on that memorable occasion—memorable, at least, to me and to Mr. Dickens, too—for, in a letter to me, written just one year after its occurrence, he says: "This day twelvemonth I dined at your house"—of the guests, I say, who honored me by being present at that time, how many have "gone hence, to be no more seen!" Washington Irving, on just such a soft autumnal day as that on which I now write, was laid, with many tears, from the eyes of a loving and admiring multitude, in a hallowed grave, on the bank of his beloved Hudson; and of the "Memorial Church," which consecrates the spot, I "can see the spire from here." Henry Brevoort, the perfect gentleman, the fine scholar, his life-long friend and intimate companion, has followed him to the "Better Land." Good Bishop Wainwright has, after them, "passed beyond the vale," guided through the Dark Valley by the "rod" and "staff" which he had so often held forth as the support of the weary and heavy laden, in their closing journey of life! Henry Inman, the noble artist, the accomplished, genial gentleman, he too, he has gone; and David Graham, the able lawyer, the eloquent advocate, "the friend closer than a brother," reposes in the shades of Greenwood. And Henry Cary, the delightful and felicitous essayist of his time—the hospitable, genial, refined gentleman—he, too, from the shores of classic Italy, has "winged his spirit flight" to heaven! The guests were Washington Irving, Mr. and Mrs. Dickens, William Cullen Bryant, Fitz Green Halleck, Bishop Wainwright, Henry Brevoort, Henry Inman, Henry Cary, (nom de plume, "John Waters,") David Graham, Jr., Y. D. Dakin and wife, including, of course, the honored and gratified host and hostess. And of all these but six survive! The acceptances to the brief invitations were most of them somewhat out of the usual curt courtesy of reply.—Mr. Cary's, I remember, and Inman's, were especially happy in their allusions to the "many-sided" gentlemen whom they were invited to meet. Halleck's was characteristically felicitous. It began:

"The bridegroom may forget the bride
Was made his wedded wife yestreen,
The monarch may forget the crown
Which on his head an hour hath been,"

but I'll not forget that I am to have the pleasure of dining with you on Thursday evening, to meet that rare painter of human character, Mr. Dickens." I take it that a company more genial could scarcely have been brought together. Most of the persons present were known to each other, individually or by reputation; and there was no stiffness, no unnecessary ceremony. Mr. Dickens brought letters to Doctor Wainwright from Sidney Smith and other eminent English prelates; and there was an opening for mutual pleasant chat and anecdotes of that rarest of English wits, Washington Irving, usually so reticent when dining out, was never more "at home;" nor did his spirits flag during the entire "sitting." Inman and Dickens had quite a season of mesmerism and table moving tale, a topic just then most in vogue; Halleck and Brevoort got started off their pleasant experiences abroad; while Graham was enlightened, as were the rest of the guests, by the picturesque differences between the forms and proceedings in the criminal courts of London and those of our city, which latter Mr. Dickens had that day visited in company with his interlocutor.—And how we all laughed (being much astounded!) when the guest arrived that he had met at dinner two days before, the very prototype of his original conception of the immortal Pickwick—the late George Griffin, the patriarch of the New York bar! His first "model" of Pickwick was a tall, dignified, benevolent, this man.

But of these and other kindred matters, which "sprung from the occasion," I will write in another and concluding sketch.—It was something not easily forgotten to hear Mr. Brevoort describe his first meeting with Napoleon Bonaparte, and Mr. Irving and Dickens exchanged notes and impressions of the Duke of Wellington, whom both had met so often; to listen to anecdotes and criticisms of the great English artists, between Inman and his newly made friend; and I will try to do justice to these and kindred matters in another sketch, and that without violating, in the slightest degree, the proprieties of private sociality.

Now a few words to my customers and friends: You see a great many different styles of advertisements. Some say they are in "luck again;" some say they have "hit the nail on the head;" some "selling out at cost;" some to "make room for a new stock;" some one thing and some another. But allow me to say, whether I am in luck, or whether I hit the nail on the head, or whether I missed the nail entirely, or failed to advertise "selling out at cost," I have sold out my old stock, (while they are still hammering away over their old stock,) and have been North and bought a new stock. My goods are now in Store, and opened for inspection.

COME AND LOOK AT THEM.

I told my customers, six months ago, that I would sell goods as cheap as Yankee, Jew or Gentile, and I think I have made my word good.

I told the people to come to Creech's to buy their goods, that I would serve them right. Hundreds have come, and they are still coming from this and adjoining Counties. And I here take the privilege to say, I think they have shown their good judgment.

Don't forget to come to

Cars are run through without breaking bulk between Petersburg and Raleigh, Charlotte, Goldsboro', Wilmington, &c. &c. This Inland Line possesses many advantages over a Sea Route. Marine risk is small and insurance is comparatively nothing. Great attention paid to consignments of Cotton, Corn, Wheat, Rosin, &c. &c. All produce forwarded at the lowest possible rates.

CONSERVATIVE TICKET FOR THE CONVENTION IN WAKE.

HON. DANIEL G. FOWLE,
REV. BENNET T. BLAKE,
PRIESTLY H. MANGUM, Esq.
DR. JNO. A. McLEAN.

THE CONSERVATIVE CONVENTION.

The proceedings of a Conservative meeting in Greene will be found in another column. Delegates were appointed to the Conservative Convention proposed to be held in this city on the 11th prox. In some ten or twelve other counties, we presume, similar meetings have been held. The time is but little more than three weeks off, and if it is designed to make the proposition a success, it behooves our friends to be moving at once. Let meetings, therefore, be immediately called in every county in the State, in which they have not already been held.

The advantages of a consultation, about the time designated, among the Conservatives of this State, are too obvious to be specified. Conventions have been held already in South Carolina, Georgia and Alabama, and one is to meet in Virginia on the day suggested for this State. There is an absolute necessity for unity of sentiment and concert of action among the Conservatives at the present time, and we ask our friends to take prompt steps to secure these results in the manner prescribed. Do not delay, and let the Press of the State at once take the matter in hand.

Apropos to the subject, we commend the following views of the Old North State:

"It seems to be settled that a Convention of the Conservatives of North Carolina will be held in the city of Raleigh, on the 11th, of December, for the purpose of effecting the organization of a Conservative party in the State. This movement has the approbation, we think, of the Conservative men of Rowan county. There are many reasons why such an organization should be formed that did not exist for forming it at an earlier period. The election for members of the Constitutional Convention will then be over, and we shall know the complexion of that body, and what we may have to expect from it. If it shall be a conservative body, the counsels of the leading statesmen of North Carolina might very materially aid it in shaping its course. If it should be a radical body, determined upon fastening upon the people of the State a radical and proscriptive Constitution, then there should be a thorough organization of the conservative element for the purpose of defeating its ratification by the people, when they come to vote upon it at the ballot box. Considerations like the latter have led to the call of a Convention by the Conservatives of Virginia. They have nothing to hope from the convention elected to frame a constitution for that State, and consequently they are going to organize for the purpose of defeating its action at the polls—They have no other hope at present. We hope for the election of a much more conservative body in this State, but in this we may possibly be disappointed. In any event, such an organization may be productive of good and can do no harm."

ALABAMA CONVENTION—THE TELEGRAPH.

WASHINGTON, D. C. Nov. 17.

The telegraph is used freely by the Radical leaders here, in their efforts to hold the Alabama Convention in check. The leaders in the Convention desire to place the State in the condition of Tennessee, whereas the Radical leaders here insist on nearly universal suffrage, taking the ground that the Northern elections showed hostility to negro supremacy and not to negro suffrage. The leaders here are not hopeful of controlling the Convention. It is stated that numerous dispatches are passing between these leaders and Gens. Pope and Swayne with regard to the Convention.

The whole temper of the Alabama Convention accords fully with the spirit of the Southern Radicals, black and white, in all the Southern States. Here and there, a moderate man, a man of policy, rises up and urges milder means, but the object to be accomplished by both is the same. The design is to hold the offices of the country—to drive out that class of men who are most competent and trust-worthy, and to reduce, by taxation or other means, every man of character and influence to such a state of poverty and dependence, as will either drive him from the country or to irrecoverable pecuniary ruin.

No extravagance of opinion or action on the part of State Conventions, composed of the material of which the Alabama Convention is made up, need surprise any one.—Perhaps, it is best for the cause of Conservatism, that where this rancorous spirit of Radicalism has the power, it should be left untrammeled to do its worst. Nothing else will so quickly arouse the great masses to put it down.

Those people in this State, who look with forbearance towards the Radicals, and hope that they will not go to such excesses here, are simply hoping against hope. The leading Radicals at Washington will find their efforts impotent to control them, when once they feel they have the power to do as they please.

LABORING MEN!

Do you not remember how violently the Radical organ, in this City, assailed the municipal authorities for employing you to work the streets, to the alleged exclusion of negroes! Vote against the negro Radical ticket! Vote against those whose sensibilities are wounded, because you are given a job, which they (in their anxiety to control the negro-vote) say should be shared with negro laborers, or else a great wrong is perpetrated!

CONGRESS re-assembles on Thursday.

JUDGE FOWLE.

The Conservatives of Wake are proud of their entire ticket. They are all gentlemen of intelligence, of integrity, of honorable bearing and of high moral standing. But his associates and the Conservatives of Wake yield to Judge Fowle the honor of bearing our banner aloft in the canvass, in a manner worthy of the noble cause and of a glorious triumph. Greatly reluctant to accept, yet yielding to the unanimous wishes of his friends, he has spared no pains to carry out successfully our principles and to secure the triumph of Conservatism in old Wake.

He has shown himself to be every way worthy of the confidence reposed in him.—His speeches have been highly instructive and forcible, and in some instances, we learn, he has beaten himself in the lofty, eloquent and powerful appeals he has made in defence of constitutional liberty. A friend informs us, who has been long in the habit of giving attention to such matters, that his speech at Oak Grove, on Friday last, excelled anything he has listened to. When the Judge closed, it is said the entire audience were excited to tears. Such a cause and such an advocate deserve success. We believe they will succeed. Old Wake will be redeemed and disenthralled.

THE PATH TO PEACE.

We called attention yesterday to an article in the New York World, under the above head, proposing a conference of moderate men from the North and South, with a view to some final adjustment of the affairs of the country, and indicating the establishment of qualified negro suffrage after a five years' probation, and the adoption of certain provisions of the late Confederate constitution, as the basis of such adjustment. This article, while not concurred in by the Tribune and Times of New York, is not assailed with that bitterness which would have been manifested a month since. The Times mildly pooh-pooh's it, concluding thus:

"Possibly it may be desirable by and by to have a National Convention, regular in form and binding in authority, with the view of revising the Federal Constitution and adapting it to the altered circumstances of the country. When that time arrives, it will be the duty of all to discard mere party considerations and to labor honestly for such amendments of the organic law, as shall fully cover every exigency growing out of the war, and, while restoring the smooth working of the Government, shall provide adequately for the rights and unity of the States.

In the meantime, the great duty is to complete the reconstruction of the South under the law as it stands, relying upon the good sense of the Republicans in Congress to tone down the proceedings of the State Conventions, and to establish a uniform policy of forbearance and liberality, instead of the proscription which is threatened. If the Democratic members choose to aid the Republicans in thus softening the asperities and mitigating the difficulties of reconstruction, they may partially atone for the mischief they effected in the last Congress. However this may be, we cannot doubt that, as matters now stand, the Congressional plan is the only solid "path to peace." The path indicated by the Democratic organ is a will o'-the-wisp, leading through quagmires and ending in disaster."

The Tribune thus briefly disposes of it:

"We shall be satisfied with the results of the peaceful conferences of the whole people of each Southern State now being held at the ballot box, and the Constitution of the United States as it may from time to time be amended, without patching it from any worn out rebel garments."

TO THE POLLS! TO THE POLLS!

Remember the election to-day and to-morrow. Let no Conservative man stay from the polls! Give the entire Conservative ticket for the county a full support.—No friend of the Union, of peace and harmony between the two races, and of the prosperity of North Carolina, can hesitate which to choose. Look at the ticket! We defy criticism or sound objection.

DANIEL G. FOWLE,
BENNETT T. BLAKE,
PRIESTLY H. MANGUM,
JOHN A. McLEAN.

BRAZIL.

We learn, from some of our exchanges, that emigrants to Brazil speak more encouragingly, than at first, of the prospect.—The climate, lands, labor and the disposition of the government to promote the interests of the emigrant, are all said to be favorable. Quite a number of persons have gone from our more Southern States, and persons interested in the matter are urging others to embark in the enterprise.

MISSISSIPPI CONVENTION ELECTION.—The election for the Convention took place in Mississippi on the 5th., 6th, and 7th instant, but in consequence of an order of General Ord no publicity of the returns was to be made until after the last day's voting. The Vicksburg Daily Republican of the 7th. instant, however, states that the Convention will prevail by a majority of at least twenty thousand. The whites, notwithstanding the advice of Colonel Barksdale, of the Jackson (Miss.) Clarion, to the contrary, mostly refused to vote. Judge Allcorn, a lawyer of distinction, has been elected to the Convention on the Radical ticket from the Yallabusha district.

CHIEF-JUSTICE CHASE.—A correspondent of the New York Herald, writing from Washington, says that considerable political caucusing was carried on in Richmond during the sojourn of Judge Chase there. It is stated that a number of prominent politicians from various part of the State were there, and that the Chief-Justice expressed himself in favor of such a modification of the Radical programme as will exclude negroes from holding office, but favors universal suffrage!

ED. FULLINGS, one of the Radical candidates for the Convention in Mecklenburg, being a citizen of New Jersey, at the commencement of the war, gave aid to the Confederate troops by furnishing them munitions of war. He came South in 1862, and brought military buttons for the use of Confederate troops, and in 1865 he expressed his satisfaction at the murder of Mr. Lincoln! Fullings is a specimen brick.

CONSERVATIVES OF WAKE!

Your fellow citizens in all parts of the State are looking to you with intense anxiety and hopefulness. A Conservative triumph in Wake will settle beyond all doubt the character of the Convention.—Will you not exert yourselves to carry the whole ticket? Every man on it deserves the honor of a triumphant election. Be at the polls early and work like men.

Remember you are contending for the restoration of the Constitution and the Union—for peace and harmony, and for freedom.

Remember we go for the rights of all men, the protection of all men, but for the rule of the white race in North Carolina!

The New York Express denounces the Radical attempt to subject the Southern people to the political control of the negroes, saying:

"We protest against it, and we say that every white man who does not unite in this protest is false to his blood."

The Express publishes a letter from Hon. Hiram Ketchum, in which he says:

"Shall the descendants of the African race among us, recently emerged from a state of bondage, be admitted to the governing class? I object not to their freedom, to their education and to their being protected in their essential rights of life, liberty and property; but to admit them to be the governing class I do object, for in all past time the negro race have proved themselves unfit to govern. States of which it is composed have hitherto been governments of white men, and, in my judgment, it is better for the preservation of liberty to all races in this country, that the governing class should remain as it was in the time of our fathers."

EVERY COLORED MAN, who may vote, today or to-morrow, for the Conservative ticket, will show that he desires friendship with the white race. His conduct will be appreciated. If he wanted, now, a personal favor, employment or assistance, where would he look for it? Let the colored people think of these things and turn a deaf ear to the men, who, for their own selfish purposes, are herding them on, like so many sheep, into variance and enmity towards the white portion of the community!

CONSERVATIVE MEETING IN GREENE.

At a meeting of the Conservatives of Greene county, held in Snow Hill, on Tuesday, the 12th, inst., Theophilus Edwards, Esq., was called to the chair, and W. A. Darden, Jr., appointed Secretary.

On motion, a committee of six, consisting of R. C. D. Bauman, W. E. Best, John Taylor, Wm. Faircloth, D. W. Edwards and Richard Botts, was appointed to prepare resolutions and recommend a candidate.

During the absence of the Committee the meeting was agreeably entertained by speeches from Messrs. Wooten and Morrisey, of Goldsboro'.

The Committee reported the following preamble and resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, It behooves every friend of law, order, and constitutional liberty to stand firm in their defence, whenever assailed, or attempted to be put in jeopardy from any quarter; and, whereas, a combination has been formed in this and other States, the tendency of which is to destroy every vestige of popular liberty; therefore,

Resolved, By the Conservative citizens of Greene county, that we will, in the exercise of the rights of American citizens, denounce and oppose by all legal means such encroachments upon our rights and privileges.

Resolved, That while we intend to be perfectly obedient and submissive to any and all laws passed by our government, we nevertheless maintain the right and esteem it to be our duty to oppose, by all legal means, any act, which we consider oppressive and unjust; and that we regard the Reconstruction acts, and the supplements thereto, lately passed by Congress, as totally at variance with the letter and spirit of the Constitution, and imposing a perfect gag-law upon the citizens of ten States of this Union, by compelling them to adopt just such Constitutions as they in their madness and thirst for perpetuation of power may dictate.

Resolved, That whilst we are willing and intend to accord to all classes of our citizens equal rights in their legitimate sphere, we never can willingly consent to place the governing power exclusively in the hands of the ignorant and infatuated of any class or color.

Resolved, That entertaining these views, we desire to be represented in the approaching Convention to revise our fundamental law by a delegate whose views are Conservative, and who will use his best endeavors to preserve that great and fundamental truth, underlying all Republican governments, viz: That the people of a State have the perfect right to regulate their own questions of suffrage and system of jurisprudence, not inconsistent with the Constitution of the United States.

Resolved, That having entire confidence in the integrity, patriotism and pure Conservatism of our countryman, J. B. Faircloth, we cordially recommend him as a suitable person to represent this county in said Convention.

Mr. Faircloth then briefly addressed the meeting, accepting the nomination.

On motion, Dr. J. W. Jones, W. E. Best, Richard Jordan, J. H. Aberdeen, Dr. F. M. Roundtree, Benner Fields, Jr., and R. J. W. Beaman were appointed delegates to the Conservative Convention to be held in Raleigh, on the 11th. December.

On motion, the proceedings were ordered to be published in the Goldsboro' News and Raleigh Sentinel.

The meeting then adjourned.

THEOPHILUS EDWARDS, Ch'm'n.
W. A. DARDEN, Sec'y.

ARE NEGROES ELIGIBLE FOR CONGRESS?—Under the famous Dred Scott decision the Supreme Court of the United States decided that negroes were not citizens within the meaning of the Constitution. Whatever the popular sentiment may be in regard to that decision, it was never reversed, and remained the law of the land, at least until the proclamation of emancipation issued by President Lincoln in September, 1862. If that proclamation made negroes citizens they attained their citizenship at that time. The Constitution of the United States provides that no one shall be eligible to the United States House of Representatives until he has been seven years a citizen, or to the United States Senate until he has been a citizen nine years. These facts may dash the hopes of some of the ambitious Scobbs and Quashees, who have anticipated the honor of representing some of the Southern districts in the next Congress.—New York Herald.

The Columbus (Ohio) Crisis, an exceedingly spicy, and even peppery journal, speaks of a politician in that State who "hates" himself because he is not a nigger."

For the Sentinel.

"NON-ACTION" is a masterly policy, when pursued by both parties, but it will insure defeat and degradation to the great Conservative element in North Carolina, if the negro party should fail to accept it as a common principle.

Mr. McDuffie having declared that Congress could make peace, was asked by Mr. Crittenden to tell the Senators how Congress could make peace. McDuffie replied, by withdrawing the supplies from the Army and Navy. Mr. Crittenden replied that the gentleman's idea was a most brilliant one; provided Congress could at the same time cut off supplies from the Army and Navy of the national enemy.

Those gentlemen who counsel non action must, at the same time, bind every white and black negro in the State, hand and foot, or else they will find themselves in that very unenviable predicament after the adoption of the proposed Constitution.

Whatever right may have existed in the Federal Congress to regulate suffrage in the States, prior to the late revolution, certainly no such right ever was claimed, much less exercised. And if there was a dormant right, it has reposed so soundly that it would be the greatest pity to arouse it, and call it into action at this stage of the National Drama.

Secondly, We all know that, at one time, free negroes voted in North Carolina; at another a certain amount of property was a necessary qualification for a voter for Senator. We know that in New York a certain class of negroes could vote, to the exclusion of others; that in some States negroes could vote; in others they could not, while in one they were even prohibited the State.—We know one set of laws as to real estate and personal property prevailed in one State; others in another State. We know that in New York a man used to go to the penitentiary for larceny; in this State the man who took another's property went to the whipping post. To be brief, I assert it as true, that it was conceded by the General Government, that each State had the right to regulate its own affairs; and not only was it conceded by the General Government, but it is so written in the Constitution, for the powers which are not granted to Congress by the States, or prohibited the States, are vested in the people.

If I understand the present status of affairs, we are called upon to hold an election. Certainly there can be no election unless there is to be a choice made,—something to be done or not to be done, as the people say. Now what is that thing which is to be done or left undone? Simply whether the word white is to be taken out of the Constitution. That is the issue. This is not a grave one. The people have had no time for reflection. There has not been a full and free canvass. A great many have not made up their minds. Why then vote for a Convention? Why incur the expense?—Why agitate the State with the question of suffrage? Congress, you know, can force negro suffrage on any State! and, if my memory serves me aright, Mr. Sumner has a bill to present at the next session of the National Legislature, which bill enforces negro suffrage on all the States. If the people vote down suffrage, Mr. Sumner forces it on them. If they are for it, the National Congress will guarantee it to us, without the expense of a Convention.

Again, we should be more magnanimous to New York, Ohio, California, Minnesota, Maryland, etc., than to take the advantage of the great blessing of universal suffrage before they are allowed the same privilege. Talk of great statesmen, of noble patriots, of times, the memory of which makes men's hearts to leap with generous feelings of gratitude,—but, when the great Mr. Sumner, of Massachusetts, in all the pride and glory of his manhood, rises in the U. S. Senate to impose suffrage on this Union—negro suffrage—at that scene the human heart will want for gratitude to express its emotions and the human tongue will beg language to tell his praise!

This suffrage is a scrub-race, but then, I for one, am in favor of doing the fair thing, and of all the States coming in together under the "Act to inquire into the constitution of Ohio, New York, etc., and to guarantee all the States republican form of government," introduced by Chas. Sumner, of Boating,—Mr. ——, that man from Ohio, who has Ben Wade and found wanting, to be chairman of the Committee; always provided Judge Thurman don't beat him for the Senate.

S.

ALEXANDER H. STEPHENS TO ADDRESS THE PEOPLE OF NEW YORK.—Several leading gentlemen of both political parties, among whom, we are informed, are Messrs. Brown Brothers and Peter Cooper, have recently addressed a letter to Alexander H. Stephens, of Georgia, requesting his presence in New York, during the first week in December, to address our citizens on the actual condition of affairs in the South, social and political. Mr. Stephens, it is said, has accepted the invitation and may be expected here in a few days, when the gentlemen having charge of the preliminary arrangements will publicly announce the day upon which the Vice-President of the late Confederacy will deliver his address. Among the leading men connected with the ex-Confederate government, he is, perhaps, the only one who has retained a certain kind of affectionate esteem from all parties in the North, and there are very few speakers of the day who can command more eager and attentive audiences.—New York World, 15th.

THE REPEAL OF THE COTTON TAX.—The Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Tribune says:

"From the views of members of Congress who have been here recently, and others now in the city, it appears that there is a strong probability that the tax on cotton will be repealed shortly after Congress convenes. The pressure in favor of this repeal in all directions of the North from influential citizens is almost irresistible."

TRIAL OF THE CONSPIRATORS.—The trial of Jacob Jones, Jacob Johnson and other negroes supposed to be engaged in an insurrectionary plot, in Campbell, seven miles below the city, will take place to-day before Justices Bruce, Reese and Langhorne. The developments of the devilish scheme are looked for with unusual interest by our whole people.—Lynchburg News, 15th.

Ned Horton, the colored Conservative who shot three negro Radicals, who, with a large crowd of the same class, were trying to mob him on election day, has been turned over to the civil authorities by Gen. Wilcox.—Lynchburg News.

"LOYALTY" IN TENNESSEE.—A bill before the Tennessee Legislature, to "encourage and protect loyalty," provides that it shall hereafter be an offence for any person or family to have a picture of Jefferson Davis or General R. E. Lee in their possession.

The papers are wondering over the story of a Hindoo girl who married an idol. But that is not so unfortunate as the Yankee widow who married Sumner, the negro idolater. And it seems that, as a husband, Sumner is no better than an idol.

It is estimated that Washington will be shown by the new census to have a population of at least 110,000 when the returns are complete.

From the Charleston Mercury.

THE TOWN AND DISTRICT OF BEAUFORT.

The town of Beaufort was one of the wealthiest and best built places in the Southern States. It was the residence of the planters of the neighboring islands, where the Long or Sea Island Cotton was grown. It had two colleges—one for males and the other for females—a public library—charitable and religious institutions—with missionary enterprises, not only extending over the neighboring islands amongst the negroes, but reaching even to China, where the Bishop of China was supported chiefly by the contributions of its people.—Affluence, refinement, and piety went hand in hand, to form one of the most civilized and virtuous Christian communities in the world. When the Northern people took possession of the town, they expected to find it filled with mulattos, the justification of their malignant aspersions of Southern society. Letters from them appeared in the Northern press, expressing their astonishment at negroes inhabiting it. Everything in the town was in complete repair;—houses, fences; gardens, and even the furniture in the houses of the planters were generally left to the civilized custody of our Radical brethren. What is the condition of the place now, after six years' of their possession? The population has dwindled to six or seven hundred. The fences have disappeared—out-houses have been pulled down, and desolation, poverty and ruin brood over the town.

The fertile islands around Beaufort have shared its fate. The planters, by the unexpected fall of the forts at the mouth of Port Royal, at the beginning of the war, left their houses on these islands completely furnished with every comfort, their lands in excellent tilth—and an abundance of food to support the negroes, with seed and implements of husbandry, all ready for successful cultivation. Here was an admirable field, to show the benefits of emancipation. To these advantages, were added the expenditures of large amounts of money by the Government of the United States during the war, in supporting the army and navy, concentrated here for the reduction of Charleston and the subjection of the State. There was no lack of enterprising agents of Abolition Societies at the North, male and female, who flocked to this region, to spread abroad their beneficent counsels and instruction. Six years have passed since the islands of Beaufort—Hilton Head, St. Helena and the other islands, constituting St. Helena Parish,—have been under the absolute control of the Radicals and the negroes. What is now the condition of these islands? Instead of the abodes of affluence, plenty and prosperity—poverty and ruin are spread over the land. Famine stares the negro population in the face where there has been no devastation of war, but, on the contrary, large means of enrichment by its expenditures. If the Government of the United States does not interfere, and renew its alms-giving, which was never needed by the negroes, at any time since our existence as a people, whilst slavery lasted, they will most probably perish by thousands of hunger. The lands, without any renovation of skillful husbandry, have been worked down to sterility.—All the energies of the negroes on these islands were devoted to the simple object of obtaining food. But the season was wet—the grass grew freely—and negro industry failed to meet the season. Their crops were destroyed by the grasses. The caterpillar did them very little harm, for they had little or no cotton planted for the caterpillar to consume. The fences, and even many of the negro houses, are burned up, and the shade trees around the beautiful abodes of the planters, are cut down, to furnish fuel to the negro, too lazy to go to the woods, reserved in forest specially by the planter to administer to his comfort or necessities.—As a natural sequel to such a state of things, the negro population is rapidly diminishing. But one thing appears to be flourishing amongst them—the beneficent gift of their Radical brethren—hate towards the Southern white race. The grand mission of New England, under God, seems to be the destruction of the negro race in the South.

COST OF RECONSTRUCTION.

It is said the cost of the military establishment in Virginia, to carry out the reconstruction acts of Congress, was, for the last ten months, five millions of dollars—that is, at the rate of six millions a year. This is independent of other costs and of the Freedmen's Bureau. Taking all the expenditures together for Virginia, as the result of the radical legislation of Congress, they would amount, probably, to over ten millions. A proportionate sum has been spent, of course, in all the other Southern States. The cost of reconstruction in all, then, is little less than a hundred millions a year. What a prodigious sum wasted—literally thrown away! The South might have been restored long since, and without this cost. Restoration has been delayed, with all the frightful consequences, socially, politically and financially, for no other purpose than to keep the dominant party in power. An overburdened people are called upon to pay a hundred millions a year to establish negro rule in the South and to keep the radical republicans in power. This is the naked fact, and one which we believe the people will long remember.—N. Y. Herald.

It is our painful duty to add the name of another Ansonian to those who have fallen victims to the yellow fever in Texas. The Rev. Martin P. Myers, a native of this county, and a highly respected citizen, is announced among those who fell victims at Houston, a short while since.—Wadesboro Argus.

The citizens of Botetourt county, Virginia, have addressed a petition to General Schofield asking him to suppress the secret meetings of armed negroes in that county. They state that unless these leagues are broken up, they see no recourse but in counter organization and a general arming for the protection of their homes and of the women and children. They simply demand that the negroes be compelled to "conduct themselves in as quiet and orderly a manner as the whites."

The Louisville Democrat has found a use for those cuts of male and female fugitives, each with a bundle, which used to represent runaway slaves. It makes a row of cuts of the female fugitives to celebrate the defeat of woman suffrage, and of the males to celebrate the like defeat of "nigger suffrage." Thus it has turned to account property which had been thought to have lost all value.

We must go into the Presidential contest to win. We cannot afford to lose, for the loss of the election would be the death of the nation. It, when the time for action arrives, it shall be perceived that the nomination of Sherman is essential to the success of the Democratic party and its principles, it would be criminal not to nominate him. Louisville Courier.

"A "VOTER" OUTRAGED.—"A voter," who could not read, was made the subject of a painful joke at the Savannah (Ga.) election. Some person gave him an old bill of fare of the famous "Our House!" With great dignity and solemnity he deposited it in the box, and walked away, evidently highly pleased with himself and ticket.

HOME CERTIFICATES

From Physicians.

We hereby certify that the Rosadalis is prepared by a Physician, who is an experienced Pharmaceutist and Chemist, and that his remedy is an efficient and reliable one in SCROFULA, Syphilis, &c., it having performed some remarkable cures in this vicinity.

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE.—Dear Sir—Please send me immediately per Express to Tarboro, two dozen more bottles of your Rosadalis. I have carefully examed its Formula, and have used it in my practice in a number of cases. I am well pleased with it. I think it, beyond doubt, the best Alterative I ever used. I have tried it in several cases of Scrofula and Scrofulous Affections, &c., with much satisfaction to myself and patients. I have also used it in Secondary and Teritary Syphilis, [one a terrible case of eight years' standing,] in which it acted with surprising and satisfactory effect—making a quick and thorough cure. I have, therefore, no hesitation in recommending it to Physicians and others, as the most reliable Alterative now known.

Respectfully yours, &c.,
A. B. NOBLES, M. D.

A Wonderful Cure of Scrofulous White Swelling.

HOME CERTIFICATE.

I hereby certify, that last September I was attacked with White Swelling of the left knee—and also with an enlargement of the glands of the neck—[one tumor reached a large size.] The swelling of the knee was enormous, and it attended with the most excruciating pains. I was so reduced that I was confined to my room over three months. My leg was so completely drawn up, that I could not bend it at all. I tried various remedies, and they failed to give me any relief. I was in this condition when I commenced taking Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis. The swelling in the knee and neck began to subside before I took all of the first bottle. By the time I took the second bottle, the swelling of the neck entirely disappeared and that of the knee nearly so. After taking three bottles I found myself completely well—able to walk as well as ever, &c.

Rosadalis cures Carbuncles, Boils, Pimples, &c.

Certificate from an old and much respected citizen of Greene County, now a resident of Wilson, N. C.

I hereby certify that, during the summer and fall of 1866, that I was severely afflicted with Carbuncles—having had as many as fourteen large Carbuncles, and twelve ordinary Boils. I suffered so much from them that I could not get out of the house half the time for several months. Being induced to try Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis, I was entirely cured by the use of one bottle of that truly valuable medicine.

Consumption, in its Early Stages, can be Cured.

BALTIMORE, Md., March 4th, 1867.

Dear Dr. Lawrence—My daughter having been cured of a deeply seated disease of the lungs by your "Rosadalis," I feel it my duty to make the fact known to you for the benefit of others. She suffered nealy two years with a hard cough, which troubled her day and night; at last the emaciated form, glossy eye, night sweats, together with the cough, told too plainly that it was Consumption, beyond question, eating at her vitals. Our Physician's remedies brought no relief. She was advised to try your Rosadalis, as a tonic—which she did—imagine my surprise and gratification, when I found her appetite returning. Slowly she regained her strength, her cough and night sweats gradually ceased, and she is now, after taking five bottles of your medicine, apparently as well as ever.

Yours respectfully,
MRS. E. ANN SMITH.

Rosadalis cures all Skin Diseases.

Salt Rheum Cured! Remarkable Cure!!

DR. LAWRENCE, Wilson, N. C.:

My Dear Sir—For the last ten years (until recently) I suffered with an inveterate eruption of the skin—called by physicians "Salt Rheum," with which I suffered terribly; the pain and itching was almost intolerable. I tried several of the best physicians in Europe and this country—have visited several celebrated Springs—spent thousand of dollars—and failed to get any better. In December 1866, being in Charleston S. C., I was told by a gentleman at the hotel, that he had been cured of a bad tetter by a medicine called "Rosadalis." I resolved to try it, without any hope though of its doing me any good. I procured a bottle of Messrs. King & Cassidey, and commenced taking it. Finding, to my surprise, that I was improving, I bought four other bottles; but before commencing on the last two, I found I was completely well—the disease having entirely disappeared.

Enclosed find "One Hundred Dollars," which please accept as a token of my gratitude. Why do you not make your invaluable Rosadalis widely known?

Your sincere friend,
W. T. SELTZER.

Major John W. Dunham, one of the editors of the Wilson "North Carolinian," says in the issue of the 20th April, 1867: "I believe from personal experience, that the Rosadalis is the finest tonic ever prepared."

"THE WIZARD OF THE SOUTH."—It will be seen that Sargent, the celebrated Magician and Illusionist, will give a series of brilliant entertainments at Tucker Hall, commencing on Thursday evening. "WEEKLY NORTH CAROLINIAN."—Messrs. Hearne, Dunham and McDaniel, of the Carolinian, have commenced the publication of a weekly issue of their paper. It is a mammoth sheet, filled to the brim with interesting miscellany, and is eminently worthy patronage. As such, we heartily commend it. It is published at the low price of $3 per annum.

The San Francisco papers give accounts of a frightful tragedy which occured on election day at Little Lake, Mendocino County, California. Two families, of the names of Coates and Frost, had had a feud for a long time, and it broke out in bloodshed on that day. Several members of each family, armed to the teeth, met in the town and commenced firing upon each other. The elder Coates commenced by killing one of the Frosts. This fire was returned, and it then became general between the families, during which five of the Coates family were killed and three dangerously wounded, while on the other side Frost was killed and his son-in-law, Duncan, was mortally wounded. Not a word was spoken by either party during the affray.

TERRIBLE CALAMITY—ONE OF THE WEST INDIA ISLANDS SUBMERGED AND TEN THOUSAND PERSONS DROWNED.

HAVANA, November 14.—Tortolo, [probably Tortola] one of the British West Indies, has been submerged, and ten thousand persons drowned.

Advices from Porto Rico to the 7th inst. have been received. A terrible hurricane had visited the Southern portion of the island, destroying all the crops.

Two hundred lives were lost, and four thousand families are destitute. Provisions were to be landed duty free for two months.

Subscriptions had been opened in Havana for the relief of the sufferers at St. Thomas.

The Liverpool steamer which was sunk during the hurricane carried down $5,000,000 in specie and merchandise. The loss of the Steamship Company, at St. Thomas, will amount to $12,000,000.

Some five hundred bodies remaining unburied have been burnt on the island.

DESCRIPTION OF TORTOLA.

Tortola, which, a despatch by the Cuba cable announces, has been submerged, with a loss of ten thousand persons, is one of the Virgin Islands, West Indies, belonging to Great Britain, situated between Virgin Gorda and St. John's. The length of the Island is twelve miles and its breadth four miles. It consists mostly of a range of hills rising to 1600 feet in elevation and in its north part encircling a harbor, on the west side of which is the town of Tortola. The island is very unhealthy to Europeans. Tortola has its Governor, Council, and Legislative Assembly. It became a British possession in 1666.

OTHER DISASTERS.

WASHINGTON, November 14.—The State Department has received from Lucius A. Very, United States Vice Commercial Agent at Matamoras, a letter dated October 12th, giving an account of the tornado which passed over that city and vicinity on the night of the seventh and eighth instant. He states:

The amount of losses in Matamoras can not yet be computed. Five millions of dollars would be a low estimate at least. Six hundred houses have been destroyed, including many valuable warehouses containing large stocks of goods. So far as heard from all the ranches are thrown down for thirty miles around Matamoras. At the mouth of the river the destruction was great; scarcely a house is left standing. All the river steamers were wrecked or disabled, except the Tamaulipas No. 2, which was still serviceable. Considering the great destruction of buildings, the number of casualities is not great, probably twenty killed and forty or fifty more or less injured.

Brownsville suffered equally with Matamoras, very few buildings being left uninjured. Much suffering, the Commercial says, must necessarily follow this terrible disaster, when so many are left without a shelter, and all their property destroyed.

THE RECOVERY OF THE HAMPTON FAMILY JEWELRY.

We find the following statement in the Knoxville (Tenn.) Herald of the 10th instant:

"Yesterday morning a young and rather verdant looking man entered the jewelry store of Messrs. Smith & Lyons and offered for sale a gold curb-chain. After some questioning the chain was purchased by the proprietors of the store at regular prices. The man then produced a ladies' diamond pin and ear rings to match, for which he offered to take the sum of $12. This was also purchased. Leaving the store, he was gone a few minutes, when he returned, and producing a gold chain with a diamond in the slide, he offered it also for sale. One of the firm, Mr. James A. Lyons, suspecting the property was stolen, went out to find the Mayor, while the other partner kept the countryman in conversation. One of the police returned to the store with the first gentleman, and after some conversation arrested the man. He produced two gold watches, one of which had the name "W. C. Preston, 1852," on the watch, and "M. Hampton, 1817," on the case; a magnificent gold bracelet, with a very large solitaire diamond on it, set in blue enamel, and a broken gold pen holder. He first gave his name as McClain. In regard to the jewelry he had told several stories, but the most probable one is that he found it in a box, with a large lot of silver-ware, near a small stream, in York district, South Carolina. He admitted that he knew by the name who the probable owners were, but could not give any very good reason why he had come all the way to Knoxville from South Carolina to dispose of it. The jewelry is mostly old style, but is very valuable.

Mayor Luttrell sent a telegram to the Hampton family, at Columbia, South Carolina, informing them of the arrest and recovery of the jewelry, and a dispatch has been received from Wade Hampton, claiming the property as his, and requesting the mayor to hold the prisoner and jewelry until he could get here."

RESOLUTIONS OF THE NEW HAMPSHIRE DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.—First declares fidelity to the Union and the Constitution to be the cardinal docrine of the New Hampshire Democrats, and pledges no abatement of zeal in their behalf. Second declares the congressional plan of reconstruction to be revolutionary, and an attempt to establish negro suffrage an atrocious crime against the principles of republican government and the civilization of the age. The third relates to legislation outside of the Constitution. The sixth congratulates the Middle and Western States on the recent elections, and invites conservative men from those States to unite with them in securing similar results in this State.

Wendell Phillips is out in another letter urging the Radicals to proceed to the impeachment of President Johnson, and to make void all those acts of his which Congress may declare to have been illegal. W. Phillips demands that active prominent rebels shall not be allowed to escape punishment—that the confiscated lands returned to them under the President's pardon shall be taken from them again and parcelled out among the negroes, and that the new war cry of the Radicals shall be "Impeachment, Revocation of Pardons and Pre-emption of Surrendered Lands."

General Schofield, it is given out, intends to arrest all persons in his district who make incendiary speeches, or who shall do any act calculated to array the white and colored races against each other.—Sun.

FOR THE STATE OF

NORTH CAROLINA AND PART OF VIRGINIA.

HAS PAID ANOTHER LOSS IN THIS DEPARTMENT ON THE 7th NOV., 1867, to the widow of the late Castine Doscher, of Wilmington, N. C. Policy No. 28,650, for $5,000. This Company has done more in the last two years for the citizens of this State than any other Company.

DIED IN 1866 AND 1867, AND POLICIES PAID AT THE OFFICE IN RALEIGH:

Justice Kinsey, of Raleigh,	$ 5,000
J. E. Weeks, Elizabeth City,	5,000
T. J. Garner, Weldon,	3,000
S. B. Turnage, Kinston,	10,000
J. F. Sanders, Smithfield,	5,000
Castine Doscher, Wilmington,	5,000

A very serious question for a Husband and Father to ask himself, is, Should I be taken away to-morrow, would my family be provided for as I wish them to be? The Ætna Company is one of the solid institutions of this country and by taking a Policy here you provide a certainty.

That which has made this Company such a favorite and so popular, is the low rate and prompt payment of all demands.

ROCK ME TO SLEEP.

Backward, turn backward, O Time in your flight!
Make me a child again just for to-nig ht!
Mother, come back from the echoless shore,
Take me again to your heart as of yore;
Kiss from my forehead the furrows of care,
Smooth the few silver threads of my hair;
Over my slumbers your loving watch keep—
Rock me to sleep, Mother—rock me to sleep.

Backward, flow backward, O tide of the years,
I am so weary of toil and of tears—
Toil without recompense—tears all in vain—
Take them, and give me my childhood again!
I have grown weary of dust and decay—
Weary of flinging my soul's wealth away:
Weary of sowing for others to reap—
Rock me to sleep, Mother—rock me to sleep.

Tired of the hollow, the base, the untrue,
Mother, O, Mother, my heart calls for you!
Many a summer the grass has grown green,
Blossomed and faded our faces between,
Yet, with strong yearning and passionate pain,
Long I to-night for your presence again.
Come from the silence so long and so deep;
Rock me to sleep, Mother—rock me to sleep.

Over my heart, in the days that are flown,
No love like Mother love ever has shone;
No other worship abides and endures,
Faithful, unselfish and patient like yours;
None like a Mother can charm away pain
From the sick soul and the world-weary brain,
Slumber's soft calms o'er my heavy lids creep;
Rock me to sleep, Mother—rock me to sleep.

Come, let your brown hair just lighted with gold,
Fall on your shoulders again as of old;
Let it drop o'er my forehead to night,
Shading my faint eyes away from the light;
For with its sunny-edged shadows once more
Happy will throng the sweet visions of yore.
Lovingly, softly, its bright billows sweep;
Rock me to sleep, Mother—rock me to sleep.

Mother, dear Mother, the years have been long
Since I last listened to your lullaby song;
Sing them, and unto my soul it shall seem
Womanhood's years have been only a dream.
Clasped to your heart in a loving embrace,
With your light lashes just sweeping my face,
Never hereafter to wake or to weep—
Rock me to sleep Mother—rock me to sleep.

FLORENCE PERCY.

THE FIVE WEDDINGS.—Wooden, Tin, Silver and Golden Weddings mark the fifth, tenth, twenty-fifth and fiftieth anniversaries of matrimony. There is, we believe, a Glass Wedding also, but that is an innovation, for nothing as brittle as glass should be used commemorative of the nuptial tie. A wooden wedding can be a very tasteful affair.—Lately a wooden wedding was given by a happy five years' wife, in which the rooms were ornamented with festoons of shavings, pictures decorated with shavings, mottoes inscribed on the walls with shavings, the effect of which was exquisitely tasteful and unique. The presents of course were wooden, and in such variety and character—from a knot chopping-bowl to an elaborately carved paper-cutter, from a rolling pin to an exquisitely finished parlor Bracket—as to excite one's special wonder that so many useful and ornamental things can be made from wood.

As this is the season when sore throat is prevalent, we publish the following for the benfit of the sufferers: Dissolve a small piece of alum in sage tea; then mix a little honey. One or two drachms of oak bark, in six ounces of boiling water, and use the liquid after it becomes cold.

Gen. Canby's Election Order.

HEADQ'RS SECOND MILITARY DIST.,
CHARLESTON, S. C., Oct. 12, 1867.

General Orders No. 101.

By the terms of the Act of Congress entitled "An Act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," passed March 2d, 1867, and of the Acts of March 23d, and July 19th, 1867, supplementary thereto,—it is made the duty of the Commanding General of this Military District to cause a registration to be made of the male inhabitants of the State of North Carolina, of the age of twenty-one years and upwards and qualified by the terms of said Acts to vote, and after such registration is complete, to order an election to be held at which the registered voters of said State shall vote for or against a Convention, for the purpose of establishing a Constitution and civil government for the said State, loyal to the Union, and for delegates to said Convention—and to give at least thirty days' notice of the time and place at which said election shall be held; and the said registration having been completed in the State of North Carolina, It is ordered:

First. That an election be held in the State of North Carolina, commencing on Tuesday, the 19th day of November, 1867, and ending on Wednesday, the 20th day of November, 1867, at which all registered voters of said State may vote "For a Convention," or "Against a Convention," and for delegates to constitute the Convention—in case a majority of the votes given on that question, shall be for a Convention, and in case a majority of the registered voters shall have voted on the question of holding such Convention.

Second. It shall be the duty of the Boards of Registration in North Carolina, commencing fourteen days prior to the election herein ordered, and giving reasonable public notice of the time and place thereof, to revise for a period of five days the registration lists, and upon being satisfied that any person not entitled thereto has been registered, the name of such person from the list; and such person shall not be entitled to vote. The Boards of Registration shall also, during the same period, add to such registers the names of all persons who at that time possess the qualifications required by said Acts—who have not already been registered.

Third. In deciding who are to be stricken from or added to the registration lists the Boards will be guided by the law of March 2d, 1867, and the laws supplementary thereto, and their attention is specially directed to the Supplementary Act of July 19th, 1867.

Fourth. The said election will be held in each County or District at such places as may hereafter be designated, under the superintendence of the Boards of Registration as provided by law, and in accordance with instructions hereafter to be given to said Boards in conformity with the Acts of Congress and as far as may be with the laws of North Carolina.

Fifth. All Judges and Clerks employed in conducting said election shall, before commencing to hold the same, be sworn to the faithful performance of their duties, and shall also take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed by law for officers of the United States.

Sixth. The polls shall be opened at such voting places at eight o'clock in the forenoon, and closed at four in the afternoon, of each day, and shall be kept open during these hours without intermission or adjournment.

Seventh. No member of the Board of Registration, who is a candidate for election as a delegate in the Convention, shall serve as a Judge of the election in any County or District which he seeks to represent.

Eighth. The Sheriff and other peace officers of each County are required to be present during the whole time that the polls are kept open, and until the election is completed; and will be made responsible that there shall be no interference with Judges of elections, or other interruption of good order. If there should be more than one polling place in any County, the Sheriff of the County is empowered to make such assignments of his deputies, and other peace officers, to the other polling places, as may, in his judgment, best subserve the purposes of quiet and order; and he is further required to report these arrangements in advance to the Commander of the Military Post in which his County is situated.

Ninth. Violence, or threats of violence, or of discharge from employment, or other oppressive means to prevent any person from registering, or exercising his right of voting, is positively prohibited, and any such attempts will be reported by the Registrars or Judges of elections to the Post Commander, and will cause the arrest and trial of the offenders by military authority.

Tenth. All bar rooms, saloons, and other places for the sale of liquors by retail, will be closed from 6 o'clock of the evening of the 18th of November, until 6 o'clock of the morning of the 21st of November, 1867, and during this time the sale of all intoxicating liquors at or near any polling place is prohibited. The police officers of cities and towns, and the Sheriffs and other peace officers of Counties, will be held responsible for the strict enforcement of this prohibition, and will promptly arrest and hold for trial all persons who may transgress it.

Eleventh. Military interference with elections "unless it shall be necessary to repel the armed enemies of the United States, or to keep the peace at the polls," is prohibited by the Act of Congress approved February 25th, 1865, and no soldiers will be allowed to appear at any polling place, unless as citizens of the State they are qualified and are registered as voters, and then only for the purpose of voting; but the Commanders of Posts will keep their troops well in hand on the days of election, and will be prepared to act promptly if the civil authorities are unable to preserve the peace.

Twelfth. The returns required by law to be made to the Commander of the District of the results of this election, will be rendered by the Boards of Registration of the several registration precincts through the Commanders of the Military Posts in which their precincts are situated, and in accordance with the detailed instructions hereafter to be given.

Thirteenth. The number of delegates to the Convention is determined by law and is the number of members of the most numerous branch of the Legislature for the year eighteen hundred and sixty, and this number, one hundred and twenty, is apportioned to the representative Districts of the State in the ratio of registered voters as follows:

THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER.

This Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine

IS OFFERED TO THE Public as a ready, certain and speedy means of preventing LARGE CONFLAGRATIONS.

Until the invention of the

Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine,

Fires have been met by means too slow, too late and too cumbrous. But few persons in this country have the advantage of large hand or Steam Fire Engines, and those few often suffer a total loss of their property by reason of the great length of time consumed in sending for and getting them into working order.

BUT NOT SO WITH THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER,

which, being kept charged and standing in your House, Store or Factory, is always Ready for Instant Service.

The fire can be extinguished and your property saved without loss or damage, or even an alarm of Fire.

The first few minutes of conflagration decide the fate of the property; "a little fire is quickly put out, which, being smfered, rivers cannot quench."

THE EXTINGUISHER, being very simple in its operation, and entirely self-propelling, requires no previous skill or practice to operate it, and being so light, portable and self-acting, is capable of being used in any place, by any person, male or female.

It puts out all fires, arising from whatever cause.

You are saved from the immense water damage caused by large Engines.

You can effect insurance on your property

At Lower Rates,

if protected by the Extinguisher.

The Extinguisher is no humbug, as thousands of good men in Europe and America will testify. I have already put these little Engines into some of our best Factories and largest Schools in N. C.

No House, Store, Factory, or Corporation is safe without them.

The price is as nothing, compared with the protection they afford.

Send for a Circular.
